Our Mission

CYPRUS CINEMA OFFICE

DEPUTY MINISTRY OF CULTURE
DEPARTMENT
OF CONTEMPORARY CULTURE

Acknowledging the power of cinema and its importance in shaping contemporary societies, the Cyprus Cinema Office at the Department of Contemporary Culture – Deputy Ministry of Culture has been actively engaged in the development of filmmaking and film education in Cyprus.

The Cyprus Cinema Office runs a range of funding programmes for the development of the local film industry and the enhancement of cinematographic production with a dedicated funding scheme for feature, short, documentary, and animation films, a special support programme for Independent Cinema as well as the Minority Co-Production Scheme for the support of Cypriot participation in international co-productions. The Office is also responsible for the international promotion of Cypriot cinema through its presence at major film markets around the world and its collaboration with international film festivals and the Cypriot Diplomatic Missions.

The Cyprus Cinema Office promotes the development of film education and film going in Cyprus, providing local film festivals, film clubs, and other cultural organisations that deliver film education and curated screening programmes with expertise and financial support.

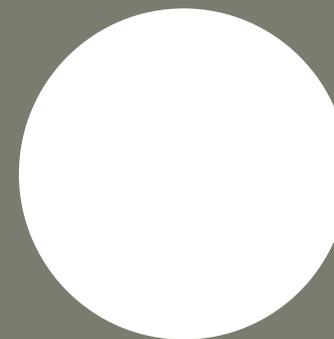

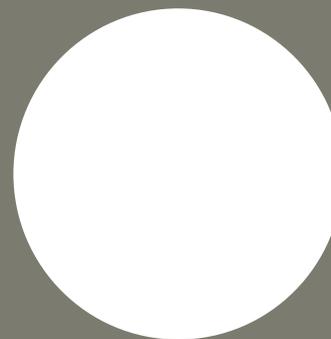

Last but not least, the Cyprus Cinema Office in collaboration with local and international stakeholders runs specially designed programmes for professional training, audience development and capacity building in the cinema sector.
